

Russia – Spain 3rd Call for Proposals for Joint R&D Projects

Within the cooperation practices existing between Russia and Spain in the fields of industrial and technological research and development in the framework of the MoU between the Foundation for Assistance to Small Innovative Enterprises (FASIE) and the Centre for the Development of Industrial Technology (CDTI-EPE), signed on January 15th, 2016, participants from both countries are invited to submit joint project proposals according to the RUSSIP Program.

Scope

FASIE from Russia and CDTI-EPE from Spain are announcing the 3rd Call for Proposals for joint R&D projects, focusing on developing innovative products and applications in all technological and market areas. Applicants are expected to develop ready to market solutions or projects which have strong market potential for Russia and Spain.

This call invites projects in ALL thematic areas.

National authorities

The Russian National Authority is FASIE, which is in the service of the financing and development of companies. The Spanish National Authority is CDTI-EPE, responsible for fostering the technological development and innovation of Spanish companies.

Both, FASIE and CDTI-EPE, will provide all necessary assistance to project partners during project proposal preparation and submission, evaluation and monitoring phase.

These organizations will also provide access to public funding for endorsed joint projects. The support will be given to each partner by its own Authorities in accordance with the national laws, rules, regulations and procedures in effect, on a non-exchange of funds basis, and subject to budgetary availability in each country.

Call Launch and Structure

The call is announced in the field of industrial research and development between Spain and Russia.

The Call will be launched on 5th March 2018 by FASIE and CDTI-EPE.

Eligible partners are invited to present joint proposals for industrial R&D projects according to the following procedures:

Eligibility

- The partners should include at least one Russian small company and one Spanish company (SME or large). Participation of research institutes/universities is welcome as subcontractors according to each country's funding regulations.
- The Russian and Spanish partners must express their will to cooperate, on an equal basis, to the development of a new product, industrial process or service and the project must be significant to both participants. The product, process or service must be innovative and there must be a technological risk involved.
- The project should have an obvious advantage and added value resulting from the technological cooperation between the participants from the two countries (e.g. increased knowledge base, commercial leads, access to R&D infrastructure etc.).
- The project will have a maximum duration of 24 months.
- No single country or participant can have a budget contribution above 70% of the overall budget.

Any partner whose cooperative R&D project is consistent with the aforesaid criteria can apply to the present announcement in accordance with the national laws, rules, regulations and procedures in effect.

Submission and approval procedures:

Partners will be asked to present their project outline via a Project Application Form. The completed electronic form must be submitted to the official relevant contact person in FASIE and in CDTI-E.P.E in different deadlines.

The DEADLINE for submitting proposals at CDTI-EPE is 7th May 2018, at 15:00 (local time).

The DEADLINE for submitting proposals at FASIE will be 17th May 2018.

In Russia, the participants will have to submit a formal national application via the internal application submission system: online.fasie.ru

In Spain the participants will have to submit a formal R&D international project application through CDTI's website (<https://sede.cdti.gob.es/>) including the application form and the draft consortium agreement. Additional documents in Spain, containing detailed information on the Spanish participants, could be requested depending on the specific type of funding requested by the company.

The national authorities will carry out an evaluation process of the received projects and will select the proper projects to be supported in accordance with their national laws and regulations. Only the projects positively evaluated by CDTI and FASIE will be funded.

Funding of the successful projects is expected to start not later than October 2018.

Financing

Each country will fund its eligible participants. Funding conditions and eligibility criteria may vary from country to country. As a summary, the main funding criteria are explained below:

Russia:

FASIE will finance technically and financially feasible R&D projects with an impact increase in the R&D of the Russian company activities. Universities, research organizations and other public bodies can participate as subcontractors (with not more than 30% share received as a grant from FASIE being subcontracted).

The project will be supported under the program INTERNATIONALIZATION. Russian applicant must submit a national application via the electronic submission system: <http://online.fasie.ru/>. A financing decision will be taken within four months after the receipt of a complete application.

According to FASIE funding rules, Russian enterprises must be small companies according to the Russian law (Federal Law №209, Article 4): up to 100 personnel, up to 800 mln RUB turnover and less than 49% participation of public, foreign and large companies. Detailed information can also be reached from here.

The funding modality for the project will be a grant up to 15 mln RUB (equivalent of 200.000 EUR), 50% of the amount of the grant provided by FASIE should be co-financed (at least 7.5 mln RUB).

Spain:

CDTI-EPE will finance industrial research and/or technological development activities of Spanish companies. Universities and research centers can be funded as subcontractors.

Funding conditions for Spanish partners may vary depending on the nature of the project. Detailed information can also be reached from here.

Spanish tasks in the project cannot start before submitting the funding application to CDTI-EPE. For further information, please contact directly with CDTI-EPE.
